

Dear students, parents and colleagues,

Access UCC Disability Support is hosting Summer School for secondary students who have autism.

Places are limited. Booking is essential. There is a €5 booking fee (if this is an issue for any family, please contact Deirdre Madden directly deirdre.madden@ucc.ie)

These events are being held 10am-3.30pm as follows:

- Tuesday 16th July for secondary school, junior cycle students who have autism (1st, 2nd and 3rd year students from secondary school)
Please click here to book your place on our Summer School for junior cycle students who have autism.
- Thursday 18th July for secondary school, senior cycle students who have autism (TY, 5th and 6th year students from secondary school)
Please click here to book your place on our Summer School for senior cycle students who have autism.

PLEASE BOOK ONE PLACE FOR EACH STUDENT.

It is not necessary to book a separate place for a parent/guardian but book a place on the Summer School with the parent/guardian name and email, adding the student's name in the appropriate section of the booking form.

The aim of these events is to :

- give students fun experiences on UCC campus.
- give students and parents an opportunity to talk to current UCC students and staff.
- make students and parents aware of:
 - the supports on offer through Access UCC Disability Support
 - the Preentry supports for secondary school students who have disabilities like:
